Presidents paragraph

Hello Rotarian's and friends,

Welcome to our new look Club Bulletin and my first as the President of your club. This also on the back of our first online meeting. A video conference (ZOOM) meeting was held last Tuesday.

I firstly would like to once again thank our immediate past President Neil. Your contribution in keeping this club alive, with the help of Joan is very much appreciated and will not be forgotten. We are indebted to you both.

I would like our club to focus on 3 things this year.

1. Building membership
2. Celebrating Rotary's 100 years in Australia
3. Attracting corporate / community business sponsors

Thank you again for this honour. I hope I can come close to all of the presidents who came before me. And that I leave this club in a better way than when I started.

In kindness, Craig

And we have also posted our web site up for the world to see.

Click the link above. Have a look. Make some notes. It is in a development stage and can be amended easily. Remember that the main content is updated every few hours from our Facebook page. So it will always be showing our current interest and changes regularly.

Thought for the fortnight

And once the storm is over, you won't remember how you made it through, how you managed to survive ... you won't even be sure whether the storm is really over. But one thing is certain—when you come out of the storm, you won't be the same person who walked in. That's what this storm is all about.

4. WILL IT BE BENEFICIAL TO ALL CONCERN?

A word or two from the original Sergeant Peter

14th July 2020

Here's a list of just some of Australia's quirkiest place names.

Banana, Qld Just south of Rockhampton, Banana is home to lots of cows, but no bananas.

Binnaway, NSW Haven't most of us?

Boing Boing, NT It may not be a bouncy town, but it does mean 'mosquitoes buzzing' in Aboriginal.

Bong Bong, NSW Because one is never enough. It's an Aboriginal phrase meaning 'out of sight'.

Boobs Flat, Tas It's a town right next to Big Bush.

Boyland, Qld Sounds like a good name for a boy band.

Broke, NSW With all the wine growing in this region, it's no wonder why.

Burpengary, Qld Gary after eating a cucumber salad.

Chinaman's Knob, Vic Um, yes ...

Christmas Island Not for the thousands of refugees detained there ...

Cock Wash, SA I shan't elaborate ...

Cockburn, WA Named after a fellow who stood too close to the fire. No, it's named in honour of Vice Admiral Sir George Cockburn.

Come By Chance, NSW So, don't actually plan to go there.

Crack Pot, Tas The people are quite sane, though.

Crocodile Rock, Tas Looks like crocodile teeth.

Deep Thought, Tas Obviously a good spot for meditating.

Diapur, VIC It's really not that sh###y a place.

Dismal Swamp, Tas Depends on your point of view.

Doo Town, Tas There's so much to do there!

Eggs and Bacon Bay, Tas Named for the wildflowers in the region, not the hearty breakfast.

Foul Bay, SA It's actually not so bad.

Gooloogong, NSW Home to 250 Gooloogongians.

Grong Grong, NSW It means 'poor camping ground'.
